

Knowledge is Power

Here at the Enrichment Center of Lee County, we believe that most people prefer to take charge of the happenings occurring in their lives. The RESOURCE GUIDE empowers you to take control by providing the necessary information to research issues and make decisions. Enclosed is a list of local, state, and national organizations that deal with the issues of aging. The local organizations include service descriptions and any applicable eligibility requirements.

The staff at the Enrichment Center will be most happy to provide additional information or assist in accessing other organizations. Call us at any time, 919-776-0501

Lee County Department of Social Services

Service Description:

Financial

Work First Family Assistance: Temporary assistance for needy families (WFFA). Eligible families get a monthly check or a one-time payment when the family has children (under 18 or expected to graduate prior to turning 19) that meet a certain degree of relationship to the adults applying.

Consideration given to countable income, that must be at or less than a certain percent of the poverty level and resources/ liquid assets must be below certain levels. This program also provides Medicaid that assist with medical care to those family members.

Medical Assistance (Medicaid): This program helps families or individuals that are (aged/disabled) with medical bills (doctor fees, prescription drugs, hospital charges, nursing home care, etc.). All of them have income limits and some coverage programs have resource limits. If eligible, Medicaid can also cover unpaid medical bills for the three months prior to your month of application.

Food and Nutrition Services: Supplements low income families/individuals to buy adequate food for proper diets. Households must pass an income and resource test. Allotments are computed based on income, certain household expenses, living arrangements and household size. Eligible households receive an EBT card (electronic debit card) that they use to purchase food. The EBT card can be swiped at grocery merchants similar to a credit card.

Crisis intervention program: This program is for low-income households in a heating or cooling-related life threatening emergency. This program has limited funding and normally runs during the fall and winter unless there is a presidential declaration due to heat related deaths during the summer.

Low-income Energy assistance program: This program provides a once a year assistance payment to low-income households to help with the cost of heating. Applications are usually taken in late October or early November. Checks are issued in February based on the type of heating source, the household's income and the area of the state the applicant resides.

Child support enforcement: This program seeks to establish paternity, establish child support orders, enforce orders, collect payments, and obtain medical insurance from absent parents.

Lee County Department of Social Services

North Carolina Health Choice: Health insurance coverage for the children who do not qualify for Medicaid and whose family income is under 200% of poverty. This program requires a yearly $50 enrollment fee for a family with 1 child or $100 for 2 or more when the family income is over %150 of poverty. There is a small co-payment for some of the services provided by N.C. Health Choice.

State-County Special Assistance for Adults: A cash supplement to help low-income individuals residing in adult care homes (such as rest homes) pay for their care. Adult care homes are unlike nursing homes in that medical care is not provided by home staff. Designated staff may administer medications and provide personal care services such as assistance with bathing, eating, and dressing.

Energy Neighbor Energy and CEMC Project Share: This program is for households in a heating or cooling related emergency when service is provided by Energy Neighbor and Central Electric Membership Corporation. These programs have income limits and authorization is based on funding availability.

Jim Garner Fuel Fund for the Elder: A program run strictly on contributions from the community. These funds are used to provide heating or cooling for the elderly that are living on fixed incomes. The program is expanded, when contributions allow, assisting this same elderly group with prescriptions.

Child Care: This program provides authorization for child care expenses for low-income families that are employed, attending school, protective service's cases, developmentally delayed, child welfare cases, and Work First Families. There are different eligibility requirements based on the reason for need for child care. Parents can expect to have a parent fee each month for their portion of the child care expense.

Social Services

Work First Employment Service: Purpose of this program is to assist WFFA recipients in becoming self sufficient through job training and education, with emphasis on job development.
